

J. W. BUCKLEY'S

(he was obliged to procure a larger

J. W. BUCKLEY'S

Clothing Store.

Six years ago J. W. Buckley opened his store in Heber with a small stock of men's clothing. It was a serious question with him whether a business of that kind could live and be made to pay as each of the big stores was a competitor. But by fair dealing, thrift and enterprise his business has lived and steadily grown until last summer he was obliged to procure a larger building to meet the demands of his increasing trade.

He carries a large stock of carefully selected men's and boys' clothing, hats and caps, men's, ladies' and children's boots and shoes. He appreciates the liberal patronage he has received and proposes to so conduct his business that he will merit a continuance of the good will and support of the people of this community.